AT 5TH PLACE, GERMANY’S overall ranking places it in the top of four tiers of youth wellbeing, similar to other OECD and high income countries in the Index. Germany is third in the European region following the United Kingdom and Sweden. German youth report a generally optimistic outlook in most areas of their lives except for a significantly lower outlook for their economic expectations.

The Global Youth Wellbeing Index ranks 30 countries from high (1st) to low (30th) youth wellbeing and is comprised of 40 indicators across six domains. For more information on the Index and to compare country overall and domain rankings, please visit www.youthindex.org.
