UGANDA RANKS 29TH OVERALL, and fifth among the six sub-Saharan African countries and ranks in the last of the four tiers of youth wellbeing. Uganda’s ranking is largely driven by weak scores across the domains, except citizen participation and economic opportunity. Despite the challenges in the national environment, Ugandan youth report higher levels of optimism in health and economic opportunity.
The Global Youth Wellbeing Index ranks 30 countries from high (1st) to low (30th) youth wellbeing and is comprised of 40 indicators across six domains. For more information on the Index and to compare country overall and domain rankings, please visit www.youthindex.org.
